Brazilian Elected President Of U. N.

Dr. Aranha Defeats Evatt, Masaryk For Top Post; Assembly Seeks Measures To Halt American-Soviet Discord

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—(AP)—The United Nations assembly elected Dr. Oswaldo Aranha of Brazil as its president today and began a search for measures to stop the discord between the United States and Russia.

Statements of 55 nations gathered from all parts of the world realized that the answer to most of the issues before the U. N. lay in settling the Soviet-Western quarrels. Those overshadowed every move here.

Two ballots were taken to name the president.

Aranha got 26 votes on the first ballot to 23 for Dr. Herbert V. Evatt, Australia's foreign minister, and 6 for Dr. Jan Masaryk, foreign minister of Czechoslovakia.

On the second ballot—between the two top contenders—Aranha had 23, Evatt 22, and four were invalid. A majority of those present and voting was required.

Aranha set the key-note of the meeting when he told the opening session this morning that the question before the delegates was "whether the road will lead to peace or to strife."

The large, ornate assembly hall was filled when Aranha, as temporary president holding over from the special Palestine session of the assembly here last spring, banged down the opening gavel at 11:09 a. m. (E. D. T.).

In contrast to the formality of last year's opening here, when President Truman himself welcomed the U. N. with a U. S. policy statement, the start this year was simple.

The morning session was confined to speeches by Aranha and Mayor William O'Dwyer. O'Dwyer told the delegates that "deep in our hearts we know that the United Nations is the best hope of mankind in a distraught world and that on your success hinges the future of everyone of us."

At 11:43 a. m. (E. D. T.) Aranha adjourned the initial meeting, putting (Continued on Fifth Page)

'MEATLESS DAYS' PROPOSAL SPREADS ACROSS CONTINENT

Sharp Drop In Grain Futures Follows Government Action Against Markets

NEW PRICE HIKE IN MILK, EGGS, MEAT ARE REPORTED

(By Associated Press)

A government move against a possible "boom and bust" danger in the grain markets was followed by a sharp drop in Chicago grain futures prices Tuesday, as proposals for meatless days to combat soaring costs spread from New York to Washington to Chicago.

As several cities reported new hikes in the cost of milk, eggs or meat, these were the major developments in the cost of living picture.

1—Wheat, corn and oats prices slumped on an early selling wave which trade sources said was caused, at least in part, by a government request that the Chicago Board of Trade virtually double margin requirements on speculative grain transactions. J. M. Mehl, administrator of the commodity exchange authority, requested Board of Trade officials to boost margin requirements to 33 1/3 per cent to "lessen the danger of a boom and bust" situation in the markets. Action on the request was postponed until later in the week.

2—The Hotel Association of New York City approved generally endorsed a municipal committee's recommendation for combating high prices, but deferred action on a suggestion for two meatless days a week in hotels and restaurants. In Washington, commissioners of the District of Columbia, issued a proclamation urging housewives to observe voluntarily two meatless days a week.

SHRINERS HONOR CRIPPLED CHILDREN

25th Anniversary Of Shreveport Hospital Celebrated By 2,000 Visitors

SHREVEPORT, La., Sept. 16.—(AP)—Shriners held the spotlight in the first two days of their celebration here Sunday and Monday, but today belonged to the boys and girls at the local Shrine Hospital for Crippled Children.

The 50 youngsters were honor guests at a program planned especially for them by the 2,000 Shriners of the South and Southwest who are here to celebrate the 25th anniversary of the founding here of the first Shrine hospital.

Tonight at municipia auditorium Shriners and their ladies heard a band and chanted concert and a hospital broadcast which included an address from Philadelphia by W. Freeland Kendrick, head of the Imperial hospital board.

The three-day celebration ended tonight (Continued on Seventh Page)

OWL PLAYING SANTA PROVES NIGHTMARE TO SNOOZING COLLIE

PLAINFIELD, N. J., Sept. 16.—(AP)—Can't tell where an owl is going to drop from these days.

Take the case of Sandy, a collie owned by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mehl, who was snoring peacefully by the fireplace yesterday when what should interrupt his daydreams but an owl who flapped out from above the guard between the fireplace and the open chimney.

Sandy, taking up the sporting proposition, chased the owl about the house until the prey settled on the bar supporting the shower curtain in the bathroom. Thereupon Sandy contented himself with glaring at the owl until a dog warden arrived and set the bird free.

Sandy went back to his snooze next to the fire place—with one eye open.

HURRICANE WITH A 'DOUBLE EYE'

This sketch by AP Artist John Carlton is based on a description of the Atlantic hurricane by Lt. Commander A. R. Fields, naval aerological officer based at Miami, who twice flew into the heart of the storm, and observed its "double eye." He likened it to a pool inside an empty bowl. Commander Fields described the center as a 30-mile "doughnut" surrounding the core estimated as seven miles in diameter. It resembles pictures of the atomic bomb explosion at Bikini. It is a fringed column of gray clouds extending from the ocean's surface up to 15,000 or 20,000 feet. Inside that column is the core of hazy, calm air, the true "eye" of the storm, now moving along the Atlantic seaboard.—(AP Wirephoto).

Louise Overell Denies Bludgeoning Parents

Heiress Admits Buying Dynamite With Co-Defendant At Request Of Her Father Day Before Yacht Exploded

SANTA ANA, Calif., Sept. 16.—(AP)—Heiress Louise Overell flatly denied on the witness stand today that she killed her parents or saw them killed aboard their yacht in Newport harbor last March 15.

She acknowledged that she and her co-defendant, George (Bud) Gollum bought a quantity of dynamite the day before, but said her husky fiance told her it was purchased at the request of her father, financier Walter E. Overell.

A second dynamite purchase testified to by prosecution witnesses was denied by the chubby Miss Overell, sole heir to her parents' half million dollar estate.

Louise and her six foot, one inch lover are accused of bludgeoning her parents to death, then dynamiting the trim cruiser, the Mary E., in an effort to conceal the act.

WOMAN DEDICATES LIFE TO LEPERS

Retired Telephone Operator To Devote Remaining Years Aiding Victims

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—(AP)—A 32-year-old retired Chicago Telephone operator has gone to the Molokai Island leper colony in the Pacific to devote her remaining years to the fulfillment of a lifelong dream of some day ministering to the lepers.

She is Miss Margaret Haven who, with her late sister Mary, had planned to work together for the welfare of a group of 60 lepers living in isolation on an island in the Hawaiian group.

Miss Haven reported her joy at reaching the island was dampened a little because Mary was not with her. Mary, always of frail health, died a year ago last December.

The sisters began planning their act of charity almost from childhood. They heard of the lepers' plight from (Continued on Fifth Page)

NEGRO CHARGED WITH MURDER, RAPE, THEFT

SOMERSET, Ky., Sept. 16.—(AP)—Police Chief Herbert Norfiet announced that Luther Williams, 27-year-old Somerset Negro, is being held in jail at Lexington on charges of murder, rape, armed robbery and wounding with intent to kill, following the death of Mrs. Ada Hughes, 51, in a hospital here last night.

Norfiet said Mrs. Hughes was found Sunday night in the backyard of her home, brutally beaten and unconscious. He said Williams, whom he arrested later that night, had signed a statement admitting that he beat and raped Mrs. Hughes, a white woman employed as a housekeeper, and took $8 from her pocketbook.

Williams was removed from jail here yesterday and taken to Lexington for safekeeping after a crowd of more than 200 persons gathered, the chief said.

"I suppose they'll get a law ready for Congress to study next session," he said. "The trouble is, no one knows exactly how it should be written. But obviously this is something that will have to be controlled."

In the meantime, if you want to make rain, go ahead.

Dr. Harry Wexler of the weather bureau even will supply the recipe. "Do you have your airplane and dry ice ready?"

Okay. Pick out a nice, high cloud that looks as if it's about ready to (Continued on Fifth Page)

U. S. MEASURES DUE FOR AIRING IN U. N. SESSION

Assembly To Get Proposals For Checking Communism, Rebuilding Europe

PLAN TO FORCE DEBATE IF IGNORED BY RUSSIA

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—(AP)—Both of the major Truman administration measures for checking Communism and rebuilding Europe—the Truman doctrine and the Marshall plan—are due for an airing in the new session of the United Nations general assembly which opened today.

High-placed American delegation authorities say that if Russia does not force debate on the Truman-Marshall measures by challenging them—as expected—the United States itself may well have to introduce the subjects. The American delegation is considering taking the initiative anyway.

The idea as developed in delegation meetings, it was learned, is that the United States would add to the prestige of the general assembly and build up United States support for that body by submitting the two policies to discussion.

This is considered important because the overall objective of American policy in the current general assembly meeting is defined authoritatively as being to strengthen the assembly in every way possible to make up for the spreading paralysis in the security council due to Russia's repeated use of the veto.

This American government view will be reflected by Secretary Marshall tomorrow when he lays before the assembly in a full dress speech a statement of what the United States conceives to be the most urgent problems before the assembly and what it believes the assembly should do about them.

TEXAS 'BLOCKADE' OF LATINS LIFTED

Mexican Farm Laborers Leave State By Truckload For High Pay 'Up North'

MARSHALL, Tex., Sept. 16.—(AP)—Latin American farm laborers left Texas by the truckload today after Texas Labor Commissioner M. B. Morgan lifted a virtual blockade which had kept them from crossing the state border.

The toll from Italian-Slav rioting in Trieste mounted to three with the death of a 17-year-old Italian student wounded yesterday by a hand grenade. Another man and a 11-year-old girl were killed previously.

Under the terms of the treaty the free state of Trieste will be administered by a governor to be appointed by the United Nations security council. Pending that appointment—Russia has objected to 18 nominees—the British-American military governments (Continued on Third Page)

HIGH INCOME TAX ASSAILED BY TAFT

Claims Present System Is 'Dangerous Burden' On People Of Nation

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 16.—(AP)—Senator Taft, Republican, Ohio, said in a speech today that the present income tax system is a "dangerous burden" on the people and called for a return to peacetime government spending and peacetime taxation.

The speech was made under the auspices of the Town Hall, Los Angeles civic organization.

Taft said that the GOP-Congress, despite presidential opposition, had achieved substantial cuts in the national budget and declared "we certainly could have afforded a tax cut of $3,200,000,000."

Taking what he said was the story of the fight between President Truman and Congress, the Ohio senator asserted that Congress had convened, expecting to cut government spending and income taxes. He added:

"We were met, however, by a demand by President Truman for a budget of $37,500,000,000 and a continuation of the war-time tax system."

ECUADOR NAMES NEW INTERIM PRESIDENT

QUITO, Ecuador, Sept. 16.—(AP)—Carlos Julio Arosemena, 33, a Guayaquil banker, was elected vice-president by the Ecuadorian Congress today and will assume the presidency for the interim period ending Sept. 1, 1948.

He polled 103 votes of the joint Senate-House total of 107.

Arosemena was supported by the Conservative-Progressive bloc, which yesterday elected its candidates to administrative office in both the Senate and the chamber.

The Congress declared Jose Maria Velasco Ibarra, deposed as president in the brief revolt which began Aug. 24, had lost his rights to the presidency because he "abandoned his post."

Vice President Mariano Suarez Veintimilla was confirmed as legal acting president, but under present plans he will resign upon the election of the vice-president.

The interim president will serve until national elections are held.

Raging Hurricane To Strike Palm Beach Today; 160-Mile Winds Also Threaten Miami

Casualty Toll Soars In Japanese Typhoon

Lyrical Named Hurricane Spreads Death, Destruction Over Honshu Island; 2,280 Listed Dead Or Missing

TOKYO, Sept. 16.—(AP)—A lyrical named typhoon, Kathleen, spread death and destruction over two-thirds of Honshu island and casualty figures to night still were mounting.

Kyodo News Agency, U. S. Army and unofficial estimate, rolled up these counts:

2,280 dead or missing, including 100 dead in Tokyo.

Two medium sized towns wiped out and numerous villages flooded.

160,000 homes flooded or damaged, including 15,000 in Tokyo.

150,000 acres inundated.

Fifteen prefectures extensively damaged.

Hundreds of millions of yen damage—millions of dollars, U. S. at the official exchange rate of 2 cents a yen.

General MacArthur's headquarters had no reports of American or Allied casualties. However, some families were moved to safer locations and an isolated unit of several hundred U. S. cavalrymen at Camp McNair, near Fujiyama, was supplied by air.

The typhoon, named Kathleen by the U. S. Army weather bureau, passed 30 miles south of Tokyo and only 10 miles south of U. S. Eighth Army headquarters at Yokohama Monday night.

REVERSAL SOUGHT ON DENHAM RULING

A. F. L., C. I. O. Train Legal Guns On N. L. R. B.; Oppose Signing Affidavits

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—(AP)—The AFL and CIO trained their big legal guns on the National Labor Relations board today in an effort to get it to reverse a ruling by its general counsel, Robert N. Denham, on non-Communist affidavits.

Denham has ruled that unless all top officers of the AFL and CIO sign affidavits saying they are not Communists, the Taft-Hartley labor act bars any union affiliated with the two organizations from using the NLRB's facilities for settling grievances.

John L. Lewis, a vice-president of the AFL, has refused to sign.

AFL General Counsel Joseph A. Padway said he would ask the board to reverse Denham forthwith.

CIO General Counsel Lee Pressman disclosed that individual CIO unions are preparing similar appeals to bring to the board within a few days. He agreed with Padway that the board could act without waiting for such appeals, if it so desired.

Padway told a reporter he believes the five board members could over- (Continued on Third Page)

$60,000,000 LOAN GRANTED TO BRITAIN

LONDON, Sept. 16.—(AP)—The British treasury announced tonight the International Monetary Fund had agreed to provide Britain $60,000,000 in exchange for Sterling in the next few days.

A government source said earlier that Britain soon might ask the International Bank for reconstruction and development, another agency, for a $3,000,000 loan to help ease her economic crisis.

Dr. W. L. BUS STRIKER FINED ON ASSAULT CHARGE

SHREVEPORT, La., Sept. 16.—(AP)—J. H. Lee, former employe of Southern Trailways Bus Lines, pleaded guilty to charges of assaulting Doug Perry, photographer for the Shreveport Journal, and was sentenced today in city court by Judge Ruvian D. Hendrick to pay a fine of $50 or serve 30 days in jail.

Lee paid the fine.

Additional charges against Lee of assault with a knife and the use of vile and profane language filed by J. H. Barrett, general baggage agent for the bus lines, were continued until Sept. 23. Lee was released under $150 bond on this charge.

5,000 RESIDENTS EVACUATED FROM DANGER REGIONS

Emergency Shelters Opened At West Palm Beach; Schools Ordered Closed

FLORIDA BATTENS DOWN FOR EXPECTED BIG BLOW

MIAMI, Fla., Sept. 16.—(AP)—A raging and expanding tropical storm—moved toward the rich and populous Palm Beach resort area tonight carrying a threat to life and property.

Destructive winds of an almost unprecedented velocity of 160 miles an hour were slowly but relentlessly bearing down on the winter playground area along Florida's swank lower east coast.

Latest weather bureau advices said the center of the storm which blew up in the Atlantic several days ago was expected to cross the coast near or slightly south of Palm Beach.

Miami, the fabulous metropolis south of Palm Beach, also was menaced. The hurricane warnings were ordered displayed southward to include the greater Miami area.

Likewise included was the Lake Okechobee region where a disastrous storm blew lake waters over farming communities 19 years ago today and drowned nearly 1,500 persons.

The Florida East Coast and Seaboard Airline railroads sent cars to Lake Harbor and South Bay, in the western section of Palm Beach county, to evacuate 5,000 residents. They will be taken to Sebring in central Florida.

As the storm hovered 160 miles east of Palm Beach at 8:45 p. m. (Eastern Standard Time), adjoining West Palm Beach was virtually "boarded up." The residents remained calm as they battened down and waited for the big blow.

The hurricane was moving westward at about eight miles an hour and the weather bureau told of its expansion in a terse statement that "winds are now increasing slowly and will reach hurricane force in the area of hurricane display late tonight or early Wednesday."

The dreaded hurricane warnings were in display from Titusville to Miami and in the Lake Okechobee (Continued on Third Page)

UNION DAIRYMEN SEEK SHOWDOWN

Convoy Of Trucks, Autos Bound For Homer; Demand Action From Board

AMITE, La., Sept. 16.—(AP)—A half-hundred union dairy farmers who last night accused the Louisiana state board of health of playing hide-and-seek with them, left here today in a strange convoy of rusty trucks and automobiles bound for Homer and a "showdown" with the board.

Said one farmer, leaning against the fender of his battered truck, before taking off this morning: "We'll follow the board of health clean into Arkansas if we have to go that far to get satisfaction."

He referred to the question of out-of-state milk imports. At a meeting here last night the dairymen said the board was allowing "impure milk" to be shipped into Louisiana, and Leonard Spinks, vice-president of Local No. 16, told his fellows the shipments undercut nothing in the way of sanitary tests beyond "a routine telephone inspection." He said "somebody tells somebody over the phone that the milk's okay—and in it comes to Louisiana consumers."

Dr. W. L. Treuting, head of the state board of health, said at New Orleans that although certain members of the board of health would be in Homer tomorrow for a regional conference of health department personnel, it was doubtful that the farmers would obtain a hearing at that time. Horse Show Plans Complete

Everything Now In Readiness For The Season's Most Spectacular Event

"The Governor's Lady and Judy O'Grady" will rub elbows at the Horse Show next Sunday afternoon and Monday night. A Horse Show is a great leveler of classes and when an event of this nature is staged the rich and the poor, the high and the low, meet on the common ground of equality.

The Horse Show, sponsored by the Junior Charity League, this year will take place at the Gentry Arena in West Monroe and plans for this spectacular and brilliant event have been going forward for months. Flags will be flying and flowers of vivid hue will offer a colorful background for the crowds thronging the arena. The boxes, set apart for the judges and distinguished guests, will be gayly draped in red, white and blue bunting and over all (the weatherman willing) will be the sparkling blue autumn sky.

Top string horses groomed to perfection and skillful performers will be in the ring competing for the handsome prizes to be given away. Blue ribbon aspirants are spending hours at local stables these last few days in preparation for the gala event. Eagerly awaiting show time are noted horsemen and women from every section of the south. They will commence to arrive in the city later in the week and will be lavishly entertained socially.

One of the most beautiful mounts exhibited in the Horse Show will be "Miss Monroe," owned by Herbert Fink. "Miss Monroe" recently won fourth place championship at the Horse Show in Shelbyville, Tenn. In fact most of the mounts to be exhibited in the Horse Show are celebrated, each one boasting of fine points.

The Horse Show in Monroe has achieved recognition, both for quality of competition and the prizes offered. This year's event will rival anything heretofore attempted. Entries in the show are predicted to reach an all-time high, setting a new milestone in local horse show annals.

Prize money is piling up and the trophy prizes are really dazzling. Nothing has been left undone by that gallant company of women, members of the Junior Charity League, to make the Horse Show on September 21 and 22 an event that will go down in history as the most spectacular, the most brilliant and the most thrilling ever to take place in Ouachita parish.

Announcement has been made of the approaching marriage of Miss Marguerita V. Rubio of 65th street, Brooklyn, N. Y., and Joseph E. Lowe, 31, of 4310 South Grand street, Monroe. The bride-to-be is the daughter of John O. and Jeanne de Vaux Rubio, of Los Angeles, Calif. Mr. Lowe is the son of Oscar Earl and Carolyn O'Neal Lowe.

Members of Fort Miro chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution will join with other patriotic organizations in observing National Constitution Week, September 14-20.

Constitution Day—September 17, this year marks the 160th anniversary of our constitutional form of government. An invitation to cooperate in the nation-wide observance of National Constitution Week came to Mrs. Roscoe C. O'Byrne, president general, from Mr. Samuel R. Harrell, chairman of the committee and also of the board of directors of the National Foundation for Education in American Citizenship.

In reply to the invitation, the president general said, "Our society will be honored to act as a sponsor of the 160th anniversary of the signing of the constitution of the United States." National Constitution Week will be brought to the attention of all DAR members through the National Defense News, the DAR Magazine and also through the Press Digest.

This year the observance of the day, September 17, 1787, when the constitution of the United States was signed will stress to the public the inherent value of our constitutional form of government.

All Americans will be asked to consider and honor the principles of sound government which have stood the test for 160 years, and under which the United States has become the greatest nation in the world. No other governmental charter comes as close to true opportunity, freedom, equality and justice. It is the basic charter for all Americans.

"Cook meat at low temperatures," states Mrs. Mildred Swift. How do you cook meat? The easiest way is often the best way. To prepare an oven roast, simply rub the meat with salt and pepper, place it on a rack in an uncovered pan without water, and cook it until it is done. Basting, once considered essential, is unnecessary if you place the meat fat side up in the pan so that the melting fat drips down over the surface. And don't forget to use a low temperature (about 300 degrees F.) for all meats except pork. Pork should be cooked at 350 degrees F.

Housewives of the Twin Cities call 3228 and request a copy of our "Meal for Thrifty Meals." This is a free service from your Agricultural Extension Department.

Lieutenant and Mrs. W. R. Forrester, Jr., of Barksdale Field, announce the arrival of a daughter, Adra Ellen. The maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Boies of this city and the paternal grandparents are Mr. W. R. Forrester of Mercer, Pa., and Mrs. Helen Forrester of Easton, Pa. Forrester was formerly Miss Adra Boies of this city.

Miss Marilyn Rosenberg left last week for Baton Rouge to resume her studies at the state university where she will be a member of the senior class this year. She is majoring in speech. Miss Rosenberg is president of the Purple Jackets in addition to holding other important offices.

The annual style revue sponsored by the Bobashelias Book Club will be held on Tuesday, September 30, at the Crosley school auditorium. It was announced this week by Miss Callie Feazel and Mrs. Charles Chisholm, co-chairmen in charge of the project.

Names of the West Monroe business houses that will participate in the revue will be announced next week, the co-chairmen said. Inaugurated by the club last year, the revue proved so successful that members decided to make it an annual affair. Funds derived from the event will be devoted to matters of a philanthropic nature.

Mrs. John P. Lewis was hostess to the members of the Garden Study Club. The theme of the program was "Japanese Flower Arrangements." This subject was discussed by Mrs. P. B. Snodgrass and demonstrations were made by Mrs. H. V. Collins.

Plans were formulated for the return of Dorothy Biddle on November 3 for her lecture and demonstrations on "Holiday Decorations." An invitation will be extended to the public to attend.

At the conclusion of the meeting delicious refreshments were served. Among the prenuptial courtesies this week honoring Miss Pauline Beard, one of the season's lovely brides-to-be, will be a luncheon on Saturday at the La Casa with Mrs. O. R. Brauer, Mrs. Bill Smith and Miss Alice Brauer, hostesses. Another luncheon at the La Casa with Mrs. Ben Beard, Mrs. E. R. Beard, Mrs. John Collins and Mrs. L. D. Vaughan, hostesses, is scheduled for Thursday, September 25.

EASTER LILY AS CROP DISCUSSED

L. S. U. Extension Official Declares Intensive Cultivation Needed

Creole Easter lily production in Louisiana is discussed by Joseph Montelaro, of the L. S. U. extension department as follows:

The Creole Easter lily is a variety of the lily species, longiflorum, that has white trumpet-shaped flowers. It is called Easter lily because it is adapted to forcing for Easter.

Easter lily bulbs are marketed in the United States almost exclusively for forcing under glass. The commercial grower in Louisiana must attempt to produce bulbs that will meet the requirements of the florists who will be his customers. Louisiana growers have the advantages of nearness to the market and a climate that permits earlier harvest.

The Louisiana grower who wishes to make a permanent success must carefully consider what requirements the florist will demand. Some of the requirements are that the bulbs be free from diseases that will affect the bulbs in transit or reduce the quality of the plants in the greenhouse. Growers should plant only certified seed and should rogue out all diseased plants as soon as they appear.

Too often growers dig the entire lily crop, throw it all together, grade out and sell the large bulbs and plant the small ones. Since it is almost certain that the virus diseases reduce bulb size, such practice is equivalent to selling most of the healthy bulbs and propagating the diseased ones. The problem of mosaic is more difficult to handle in sections that have mild winters, such as Louisiana, because the aphid, which is most effective in spreading the disease, is always plentiful.

Seed stock with black scale should be dipped in "Puritized N5E" solution, 1:1000 strength, for 24 hours, dried and then dusted with Arasan. The Arasan is used to control black scale in soil that is infected. If bulbs are healthy but the soil is infected, dust the bulbs when Arasan and omit the Puritized dipping.

Easter lilies require intensive cultivation. Choose a site with care. It should be fertile, well-drained, deep enough to permit deep plowing and free from unusual and expensive weed pests. For disease control, the site should be well removed from other lily culture. Remember that diseases and insects do not respect property lines.

The accused man, arrested at 8:10 p. m. Monday at Sixth and DeSiard street is being held in the parish jail.

Subsequent investigation, police reported, disclosed that a man, later identified by the druggist as Endom, went to nearby drug store where he changed the $50 bill into one of smaller denominations. Endom, police said, entrusted $30 of the money with a friend, and kept $20 himself. Four $5 bills were found on him at the time of his arrest, they added.

Endom, police reported, was convicted and sentenced in federal court in 1936 to serve two years for violation of the Drug Act, and has also been fined three times in city court for drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

75 PHONES GO OUT IN TRASH BLAZE

A trash fire in the rear of the Bernhardt Bldg. at 7:37 a. m. Tuesday was extinguished at 8:17 by the city fire department but not until it had burned a portion of the cable that furnishes telephone service to approximately 75 patrons. Considerable inconvenience was caused to the News-Star—World as all phones were out for approximately three hours. Other nearby places also were without phone connections.

The new cable was spliced in and service was resumed at 11 a. m. Cause of the fire was not ascertained.

Olive oil generally was burned in the Roman lamps used about the time of Christ.

NAT'L GUARD IS AFTER MEMBERS

Two-Month Recruiting Contest Begun Here Yesterday

Enlisted men of Company I, of the 150th Infantry of the Louisiana National Guard, will compete in a two-month recruiting contest which was begun yesterday. It will be the effort to enlist a quota of 50 new members in the unit here and to try for a state recruiting national prize, an airplane trip to Washington and attendance at the Army-Navy football game. This announcement is made by Capt. Charles M. Womack, commanding officer.

The state winner of the recruiting contest will be a guest of the war department on the Washington trip. With other state winners he will visit the White House, be entertained at luncheons by Secretary of War Robert P.

Patterson and members of Congress, tour the capital, attend a New York broadcast of the National Guard Assembly, the network radio program sponsored by the National Guard, and attend the big gridiron clash in Philadelphia on November 29. There will also be a state prize and a prize from the local battalion.

Captain Womack states that men, ages 17 to 35, may enlist in the National Guard now and participate in the contest.

region. Storm warnings were displayed elsewhere along the Florida coast from Key Largo to Jacksonville.

Emergency shelters were opened at West Palm Beach with soldiers from Morrison Field handling registrations. Plans were being mapped to evacuate islands in Lake Okechobee. Schools in Palm Beach county were ordered closed tomorrow.

Scheduled airline flights from northern points were being grounded at Jacksonville, only a few miles south of the Georgia state line.

Vast numbers of planes in the south Florida area started winging for island points in advance of the thrust of the elements.

Hurricane warnings flew along a 230-mile stretch of the coast which provides a vacationland for thousands upon thousands from all sections of the nation the year around.

Governor Millard Caldwell gave blanket authority to Brig. Gen. Mark W. Lance, state adjutant general, to utilize any of the state's 1,500 national guard troops he deemed necessary. Troops in the path of the hurricane were alerted.

The great storm raged most of the day over Abaco, a small island in the Bahamas, where winds of 160 miles an hour were recorded. Nassau, capital of the Bahamas, expected winds up to 70 miles an hour.

Feverish preparations began in Florida to battle down for the expected blow. Small boats began to parade up rivers to sheltered coves, boarding up of store front and homes began. A serious traffic jam developed in downtown Miami as residents dashed around laying in emergency supplies. Miami's acres of plate glass began to disappear behind storm shutters, military posts were alerted and 7,000 men at MacDill Field in Tampa were made ready for rescue work.

The center of the storm was placed in a 445 p. m. advisory near or very near Hope town, on the Bahamian island of Abaco, in Latitude 26.7, Longitude 71.1. The weather station there reports winds of 140 to 160 miles an hour and announced that it was forced to suspend observations.

The weather bureau in an advisory that left little doubt as to the intensity of the storm, urged emergency measures be taken immediately in the area of hurricane display. Red Cross mobile units from Miami sped to the locality under orders to standby.

Winds were expected to become strong along the coast this afternoon and increase slowly, reaching hurricane velocity—75 miles an hour or more—late tonight or early Wednesday.

The Lake Okechobee section in which 1,500 persons were killed when a hurricane swept the waters out of the Lake exactly 19 years ago today was ordered to prepare for gale winds and standby for possible hurricane warnings later.

The barometer reading at Abaco Island was given at 28.28 at 3 p. m. that at Miami at the same hour was 29.72, having dropped slowly since morning.

As the storm approached, the Florida coast was buffeted by strong winds and frequent showers. The weather was hot and humid—typical of pre-hurricane weather.

Red Cross disaster staffs were held in readiness at Vero Beach, Jacksonville and other points along the East Coast to Cape Hatteras.

E. C. Bryant, director of disaster service for the Red Cross southeastern area, announced in Atlanta that all Red Cross chapters in Florida, coastal Georgia and the coast areas of the Carolinas had been alerted to assist in evacuation, shelter and feeding, if required.

Police and fire departments along the coast went on an emergency basis, and hurricane shelters—public buildings including schools and postoffices—were made ready. The army began to load cots, blankets, emergency first aid equipment and other supplies on trucks to move into the threatened area.

Coast guard planes took off to drop warnings to ships at sea not equipped with radio, and small craft were ordered to remain in port.

The West Palm Beach area went on an emergency basis. Hurricane shutters were put up, boats were taken to inland covers, and hospitals made ready.

REVERSAL

rule their general counsel merely by announcing such action.

He said he would make that argument at a conference he is trying to arrange with NLRB members for tomorrow.

Meantime, CIO leaders have put off, until the CIO convention in Boston, Oct. 13, their decision on whether to sign the affidavits.

John L. Lewis singlehandedly blocked the AFL's compliance, although other AFL officials said they were willing to yield in order to make their unions eligible to use the board before the CIO decides on an official policy.

Daniel J. Tobin, head of the AFL teamsters signed the affidavit yesterday and asked Padway to break the log jam so his union could have access to the NLRB. Tobin has been leading the fight for compliance with the AFL because of the numerous cases he has pending before the labor board.

Padway told a reporter he has advised unions with cases before the board to sign the affidavits. He said they were quite right in seeking to protect their lines in such a matter. "On the other hand," Padway commented, "Mr. Lewis makes a very sound moral argument."

Another AFL union agreed to sign today in a communication to Denham.

Anthony Valente, president of the AFL-United Textile Workers, said that after his international officers have signed the affidavits he will seek to force recognition from the NLRB despite Denham's ruling that after his international officers have signed the affidavits he will seek to force recognition from the NLRB despite Denham's ruling that AFL officials must also sign.

cause the meeting is strictly for the purpose of individual problems of department workers. The farmers must have misunderstood. This isn't the sort of meeting where the board takes up major state problems.

Treating declined to comment on the charge by farmers that milk imports were impure.

The farmers, many of whom took part in the rough-and-ready "Florida parishes" milk strike last April, in which thousands of gallons of milk were spilled into ditches to keep it from New Orleans distributors, fail to see eye-to-eye with Treuting.

One of their spokesmen said today that the meeting was being held at Homer—350 miles from Amite—"because they figure we couldn't afford the trip, and they wouldn't be bothered with us."

business representatives later in the week the question of one or two meatless days a week in hotels and restaurants and possibly in homes.

3—Contrary to the trend of other commodities, the price of gasoline, kerosene, and fuel oil was reduced one half cent a gallon in North and South Carolina and Virginia by the Atlantic Refining Company. The Gulf Oil Corp. made a similar reduction in the Carolinas.

The Associated Press weighted wholesale price index of 35 commodities set a new record high of 135.31, compared with the previous high of 134.59 last Thursday. The average prices of 1926 were 100 in the index.

At Omaha, beef steers sold up to $35.50 a hundred pounds, a new all time high, while at Chicago weights pushed to a 1947 peak of $35.75. In New York City, less popular meat cuts were reported rising as consumers turned away from the more expensive varieties.

Sirloin steak sold for $1.30 a pound in one Philadelphia suburban store, an increase of 20 cents over last week. Eggs were up two cents to 31 to 34 cents a dozen in some Philadelphia areas. Milk jumped two cents to 19 cents a quart in Pendleton, Ore., and two St. Louis dairies raised grade A and homogenized milk one cent to 21 1/2 and 22 1/2 cents respectively.

Secretary of Agriculture Clinton P. Anderson joined other national figures in urging the public to "eat less extravagantly." He said in an interview at Albuquerque, N. M., he would submit a report on prices and exports to President Truman Monday.

Mayor Aloys P. Kaufmann said at St. Louis he would ask the U. S. Attorney General to begin an investigation of high food prices in that city since "St. Louis lies within the bread basket of the United States." The St. Louis Consumer Federation announced, mea while, it would ask U. S. Attorney Drake Watson to investigate the St. Louis dairy industry to determine if price fixing existed. A spokesman for one of the St. Louis dairies said a raise in milk prices was necessary because of higher prices paid farmers.

Meanwhile, Sen. Flanders (R-Vt.), chairman of a congressional subcommittee investigating price rises, said at Boston that the high cost of living could be lowered only by "a reservoir of unemployed" or a return to "government controls" unless "state-manship" was developed on wages and prices.

In interviews at Washington, Senator Pepper (D-Fla) said there was no hope for checking rising prices and "The American people might just as well get ready for another recession," but Senator Brewster (R-Me) contended food prices were high because the Truman administration is shipping too much food to Europe and other areas.

Lawrence Brock of Wakefield, Neb., president of the Corn Belt Livestock Feeders Association, said in a statement at Chicago that because of free prices "the United States is the only country of the world where an all-out effort is being made to increase production."

Grains staged a mild rally in late trading on the Chicago exchange, after announcement that board's directors would postpone action on the request for a stiffening of margin requirements. September wheat closed at $2.71 1/2 to $2.78, two to two and a half cents under yesterday's close. September corn closed at $2.63 to $2.62 1/2, compared with $2.65 1/2 to 3/4 yesterday. September oats closed at $1.20 1/2 to 7/8 a bushel, a fractional loss from yesterday.

will rule in the north and the city of Trieste and the Yugoslavs in the south.

Gen. Airey said the Yugoslav troops would have to go around the free state border area to enter the territory under their control.

Officers and troops along the southern sector of the free territory told newsmen that Yugoslav units in three instances issued "ultimatums" to the Americans to withdraw or they would advance within a stated time. In each case there was no attempt by the Yugoslavs to advance at the time limit.

In general the occupation by Yugoslav troops of land in the Istrian peninsula awarded to Yugoslavia under the Italian treaty occurred without incident.

An army announcement said U. S. troops remained only at a few outposts where questions of minor border rectifications were being discussed.

The Yugoslav troops that had demanded entry into the free territory were a detachment of the 2,000 troops which were designated under an agreement to be attached to the Allied military government as liaison troops.

The Yugoslav troops had been in zone A, which was under British-American jurisdiction in Venezia Giulia until yesterday, but which passed under Yugoslav authority when the treaty became effective.

General Airey said he received a letter last night from a Yugoslav staff officer saying the troops would enter on the main road into Trieste at midnight and station themselves in the city.

Gen. Airey said he previously had talked with the detachment commander and he agreed the troops should go around the free territory to enter the Yugoslav section.

The British commander immediately issued orders that the Yugoslavs did not enter.

At 3:30 a. m. a detachment of 34 Yugoslav soldiers and two officers appeared at post No. 5, on the main road to Trieste, and were halted by a detachment of 12 American soldiers. When the Yugoslavs were told they could not proceed they called up reinforcements in battle formation.

Gen. Airey said the 12 Yanks held their ground and a battalion of American infantry was immediately sent up from reserve position with a full complement of armor and artillery.

The Allied military government said the American officer in charge brought up a tank and ordered the warning burst of machine gun fire.

Gen. Airey said the Yugoslavs thereafter indicated they would agree with the decision of the Allied command and take the matter up on diplomatic level.

"Owing to the extraordinary good sense and tactful handling by the American troops an incident was prevented," Gen. Airey declared. "As it was the affair was settled amicably and I received a letter from the Yugoslav General accepting my proposal to go around and take up the matter on a higher level."

The Yugoslav troops set up machine gun emplacements at several points along the new frontier as they reached the limit of their advance.

In only one American outpost visited by correspondents was a similar precaution taken. This was in a sector near Gorizia where an Italian road forms a corridor for about 100 yards through territory which lies with a assigned to Yugoslavia.

An American officer at this outpost said the Yugoslavs advanced at 1:30 a. m. and gave us "five minutes to move back 100 yards (100 yards)."

"We refused and they came back three times to repeat the demand. We then decided to put on a show of strength. We mounted a 50-calibre machine gun on our side of the line and moved up an armored car equipped with a 37-millimeter gun."

The Yugoslavs did not repeat their demands but brought up a Russian anti-tank gun to their side of the boundary later.

Gen. Airey said U. S. 88th Division troops began withdrawing from Gorizia at noon. Earlier a group of Italian and American troops filed through thousands of cheering and flower-tossing Italians as Maj. Gen. Bryant E. Moore, division commander, turned the city over to Italian administration.

Italian armor and infantry poured into the city, and soon afterward a column of Italian tanks departed for the new frontier.

Gen. Airey distributed copies of his proclamation formally constituting the free state. It said all powers of government and administration in the British-American zone "will continue to be invested in me in my capacity of commander," and threatened death to anyone inciting revolt against the authority or leading any public assembly for that purpose.

An estimated 10,000 persons marched in the funeral services for Amelia Passarini, 11-year-old Italian girl killed Saturday by machine-gun bullets fired into a Communist cultural club. There were no incidents.

tem. The president took the position that we could not take one cent off his budget or one cent off the existing taxes."

Nevertheless, he continued, Congress passed a bill reducing income taxes by 20 per cent for "about 24 million taxpayers."

"The president not only vetoed this reduction for July 1, 1947, but he vetoed the same reduction for January 1, 1948," Taft said. "When does he think taxes can come down?"

He said the president now admits there will be a surplus of $4,700,000,000 adding "I believe it will be much larger than that."

The Republicans, Taft said, regard the present system as "a dangerous burden on the lowest income groups and on all of the taxpayers, and it must be reduced."

Taft is making a tour of the western states, gauging his chances of being a presidential candidate in 1948. He conferred today with California Republican party leaders and with a group of California bankers.

U. S. MEASURES

mitted to President Truman, aboard the battleship Missouri, for his approval. The policies it sets forth were shaped during a week-end series of delegation meetings after Marshall's arrival here from Washington.

The three most urgent and dangerous international problems on which the U. N. might act, according to the American view, are Greece, Palestine and Korea. Marshall is demanding positive solutions for the Greek and Palestine crises, with strong and direct assembly intervention.

Meantime, the delegation had all but decided today to throw the Korean issue into the hopper also, as soon as possible. The United States and Russia have been deadlocked for months on ways to restore Korean unity and independence. American officials describe the situation as a clear example of Soviet refusal to reach "reasonable agreement" with the West on critical problems.

Beyond current political questions the United States delegation is known to favor a general line of action which would strengthen and make more effective the work of the general assembly. Specifically it would like to see the assembly's organization streamlined to allow it to handle a great volume of work without having to meet for several months at a time. Restriction could be voluntarily agreed upon by the Big Powers, if the Russians would join in.

POSTWAR

17,000,000 pounds of meat in the current quarter, whereas its total production last week alone was 263,000,000 pounds.

Anderson and representatives of the State and Commerce departments were assigned to prepare the report.

Many administration officials take the view that the big factor in high prices is consumer buying regardless of values. Anderson called on the public to "eat less extravagantly."

"People are buying steak at $1 a pound and passing up rib roasts at one-fourth the price when there is not that much difference in the nutritional value," he said.

Meanwhile the District of Columbia commissioners, who administer the District government, called on Washingtonians to observe two meatless days a week—any days they choose. Similar plans were in the making in New York and Chicago.

And pleas for emergency aid to Europe continued to pour in. Alberto Tarchiani, Italian ambassador, told reporters after a call at the State department that more American grain and coal is necessary to "assure the life of Italy as a European nation."

Tarchiani said he had received the "usual assurances" from the State department—"That the United States will do all within the limits of possibility."

But, he added with a shake of the head, that the "limit of possibility doesn't look very good."

One of the questions confronting President Truman is whether to call a special session of Congress this fall to consider the question of emergency aid for Europe.

Senator Lodge (R-Mass) told a newsmen today that if a special session is called, the "problems of European aid and the high cost of living must be considered at the same time. They are the two halves of the same apple," he said.

Lodge, recently returned from a six weeks inspection of Europe, is a member of the Senate Foreign Relations committee which is expected to have at least a hand in any European aid program.

"The big demand is for food and fuel," Lodge said. "At least one of the things that is causing higher prices in this country is export of food to Europe."

in need of the services of these men, but it is still a free country and if we are to uphold the principle of freedom in our constitution, it is the duty of the sovereign state of Texas to see that no injury is perpetrated on any people, regardless of nationality," Hydrick said.

The legislator said action to change the law had been blocked in the 50th legislature.

The lifting of the embargo had followed by a few hours reports that many of the laborers had managed to cross the state line by various means.

Some had gone by train to Texarkana where taxis carried them into Arkansas to waiting trucks.

Approximately 300 workers had been halted here. Charges were filed against over a score of labor organizers.

Morgan said the state bureau of labor statistics which he heads is primarily interested in protecting the workers against out-of-state unlicensed recruiters, many, he said, of whom can not give workers proper assurances of jobs and wages.

NEGRO COUPLE JAILED ON ASSAULT CHARGES

A Negro couple were being held in the parish prison on assault charges yesterday resulting from a quarrel last Thursday.

Jesse Gardner, 15-year-old wife of James Gardner, was apprehended by the sheriff's department following her release from a local hospital. James Gardner, of 913 Oak street, was arrested by city police shortly after the brawl occurred. Both are being held on a $150 bond.

5-Year Victim of Gassy Stomach

"For 5 years I suffered from gas swelling and bloating," says a well-known citizen: "My meals just laid in my stomach and turned to gas. Had dizzy attacks from this condition. I tried many medicines, but they never had any effect on me, but finally I found INNER-AID. It cleared out all my gas. Now I can eat without misery afterward. This is the only medicine that ever helped me."

INNER-AID is the new formula of 12 juices from Nature's Plants. It has relieved many people who had never been really helped before by any medicine. Taken shortly before meals it mixes with your food, thus eliminating the poisons that foster stomach trouble. It will cleanse the bowels, clear gas from stomach, enliven liver and remove old bile from the system. So don't go on suffering! Get INNER-AID. Sold by all drug stores. (Adv.)

River Transportation

We are in receipt of a most interesting letter from Capt. E. W. Stephens of New Orleans in which he points out the availability of the Ouachita river for transportation, a subject which we have discussed editorially many times in the past. The most valuable resource has been consistently overlooked or neglected. Captain Stephens' letter follows:

"I am asking you space in your valuable paper that I know is read throughout the Ouachita River Valley to call the attention of the merchants and shippers particularly and the people as a whole to the advantages of water transportation.

"First I want to call the attention to the accomplishments through hard work by our senior Senator John H. Overton; no other man that I know of who has represented the state of Louisiana has worked so hard and accomplished so much in the way of flood control and inland waterways as he, and it is through his efforts that the locks and dams are maintained and operated especially with no commercial tonnage being moved on the Ouachita river, and the only ones benefitting by the operation of the locks and dams are the sawmill owners.

"The Ouachita river is the only navigable river that is not utilizing the benefits of cheap water transportation. Automobiles are being shipped by barge today from Cincinnati, Louisville and Evansville, Ind., to St. Louis and points north on the Mississippi river, and points south to Memphis and New Orleans, and Nashville on the Cumberland river, and points as far as Chattanooga on the Tennessee river at a saving of about 20 per cent or more to the people. And automobiles are only one item. Steel products, oil and other commodities are also being shipped by barge, all at a savings to the people.

"The same thing can be done on the Ouachita river if the people would only wake up and support a barge line. I personally know of one major barge line that is interested in operating on the Ouachita river, one that can and will give service with all water routes from Pittsburgh and St. Louis, as well as New Orleans and both east and west coasts and South American countries at a great saving in freight costs.

"The people of Alexandria, Shreveport and all inland towns could also benefit by a barge line operating on the Ouachita river by taking advantage of the joint water-rail rate which is about 85 per cent of the all-rail rate.

"The question is do the people of the Ouachita River Valley, and Alexandria, Shreveport and other inland towns and communities want cheap freight rates and other benefits of water transportation? If they do, now is the time to act before the U. S. Congress discontinues appropriations for the Ouachita river because of no commercial tonnage being moved on the river."

News BEHIND THE NEWS

By PAUL MALLON

(Copyright, 1947, by King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—For fifteen years I have muffled to myself over this typewriter that when this day came, I would give them all hell. I would even the old scores. I would say what I had felt I should not have written before. But I have startled myself by finding I do not have it to give. Instead of a lion whose tongue has been unleashed, I am a young middle-aged Mr. Atlas who has just laid down that big, round thing. Temporarily, at least.

Today I was going to rant about Russia, Stalin, Molotov, Gromyko and the Communists, and the stupid things they do and say, like blocking world peace and vetoing any postwar progress toward re-establishment of civilization. Their sympathetic followers say their guiding overall inspiration is simply world to hold the destruction of the world as far as is being done now, would seem to hold the destruction of the world as more desirable than an unrevolutionized world. I cannot find it possible within myself to give hell to souls of this nature. Now that I have come to that, I can only wonder how many Russian people are truly of the nature to which their government pretends politically, a government of perhaps 20 important men or less, over 200,000,000 people.

Then I should certainly now double my dose for the C. I. O. and its Political Action Committee, for Wallace, Ickes and the leftwing unions. Yet I can only recall at this moment, I met an A. F. L. organizer the other day, and in talking, he complained bitterly that the newspapers do not carry true union news. I had not noticed such a situation, quite the opposite. So I asked him: "How can that be, when the news is written by union men, generally C. I. O. men, copyread by union men, nationally, internationally, locally, and everywhere?" He did not answer, so why should I.

Why give C. I. O. hell for their mistakes, when their greatest mistakes are against their own self-interests, and they will suffer more from themselves in the long run than I will. If they run wages up and up, they run prices up a little higher and still a little higher, and their failure to seek and maintain a proper equilibrium in their own interests, is rushing them toward an inflation which could cause them to lose everything they have gained and perhaps more. Now that I think of it, I never saw any objective bystander, get anywhere in this world, by nudging the back of any man in a fight and saying: "Now, listen, you should not do this."

Maybe I could give a little hell to the Washington politicians. Let us start with Truman. He is leaning to C. I. O. self-destructive economics on basic issues. I guarded myself against meeting him personally to maintain true reportorial objectivity, in perhaps a silly notion I had. But Truman got rid of all the underhanded of the Roosevelt administration, or nearly all (Ickes, Wallace, etc.), in a way his dominant idea has been to reform the New Deal, and make some of it work for once. He was the man who put the nonpolitical and domestic politics, I am sure, against his policies on the unpopularity of this year for tax reduction, against spending $35 and $40 billions a year for government, and so on. Frankly, however, I have never heard of a personally meaning thing Mr. Truman ever did. He did none to me. You cannot give hell to a man in his situation, and I do mean his personal, political, economic and international situation.

I will bet you tomorrow I will find someone upon whom to pay scores, the carping editor, the newspapers, the caterers, Ickes, Wallace, the Republicans or someone. But today I feel strangely happy. With my turned-up pantaloons, and home-made fish pole 9 feet long, it is goodbye for the present to all my good readers. You have been swell to me for 15 long years. Don't you think a lot more people ought to go fishing?

IN HOLLYWOOD

By Erskine Johnson
NEA Staff Correspondent
HOLLYWOOD—The Battle of Midway's Hemline is a lot of "ridiculous hysteria over something that doesn't exist."

Fashion Designer Edith Head slipped me the lowdown on the "new look" that is supposed to be sweeping America from the Paris fashion salons, and is actually getting stiff resistance from many women and most husbands.

"It's ridiculous to say that skirts will be down to the ankles in 1948," Edith bristled. "Whenever there's a change in style some designers of high fashion go overboard. This time they have gone insane."

Edith is one of America's foremost stylists and for many years has dressed for the screen such stars as Marlene Dietrich, Dorothy Lamour, Betty Hutton, Claudette Colbert and many others.

Happy Medium

"Of course, I agree that styles are changing," Edith said, "but I'm not advocating skirts that go to the ankles. There's a happy medium—about 12 inches—and that's where I think they'll stay."

The fashion battle will also wind up in a happy medium, Edith predicts, for padless shoulders and padded hips.

"It's not smart any more for a woman to look like a fullback on a football team, but she doesn't have to look like a circus freak, either. If a woman's shoulders need padding, she should pad 'em. Most women are too big in the hips, anyway, and there will be a happy hip medium."

Economy note in reverse: Writers' secretaries at one of the big studios have been ordered not to report for work on Saturdays. But the move has boomeranged. With no one to take their place, $200-a-week writers have quietly set aside Saturday as gin rummy day and don't do a lick of work.

Clark Gable out with Dolly O'Brien again at the Chanticleir. . . . Bob Crosby and Margaret Whiting are recording an album of college tunes. . . . Shirley Temple makes her debut as a mama in her next film, "War Party," which will be released about the time she becomes a mama in real life. Johnny Agar is the papa in both productions.

Hedy Lamarr and Mark Stevens are going everywhere together. When Mark has to see his agent, Hedy waits outside in his car. . . . Eddy Howard, who has headed his own band for only three years, is set to gross more than three-quarters of a million dollars this year.

Of Mason And Cats

James Mason's widely publicized love of cats is consistent. He wound up a letter to Charles Chaplin concerning "Monsieur Verdoux" with: "Needless to say, my wife and I were delighted to note that Verdoux had the right attitude toward cats." (Bluebeard Verdoux murders his multiple wives but soulds his young son for pulling a cat's tail.)

Original investors in the play "Life With Father" have been paid off at the rate of 60 to 1. Hume Cronyn invested $1000 in the play eight years ago and has since collected $60,000.

When Veloz and Yolanda appear at the New York Roxy theater with the opening of "Forever Amber," they'll introduce a new dance called the "Amberhumba."

Civil before whom Sam had filed charges of assault and battery against Pussy, the testimony was more descriptive.

"He jumped on a table, poked his cigar in my face and pulled off my suspenders," said Sam.

"He threw water on me," answered Pussy, pulling up his trouser leg to display some leg bruises. "He did that when he pushed me into the phone booth."

Alderman Civill asked Sam if Pussy's charge was correct.

"Yes, sir," admitted Sam. "I did it with one hand. I was holding up my pants with the other—remember when he broke my suspenders?"

At that point Sam withdrew his charges and Alderman Civill dismissed the case without costs. As the midget and the strong man shook hands Pussy remarked:

"Sam, you gotta learn to keep your muscles in your pockets."

DELTA AIRLINES MAKE BIG GAINS

Delta Air Lines reported today a 43 per cent increase in its air freight business and a 10 per cent gain in passenger business during August as compared with July.

A 25 per cent reduction in air freight rates on August 1 was largely responsible for an increase from 91,130,393 freight pound miles in July to 175,395,100 freight pound miles in August, according to Paul W. Pate, Delta cargo and mail traffic manager.

In August 50,222 passengers were transported, compared with 44,964 during the previous month, or an increase of 12.3 per cent. Revenue passenger miles (carrying one passenger one mile) increased 10 per cent, from 16,027,530 to 17,759,494.

The load factor (percentage of seats occupied at all times) rose to 60.45 per cent in August, an increase of 5.75 over July.

Loads during the early part of September indicate a further increase is in sight for this month, said Leigh C. Parker, vice-president of traffic.

SEVEN IN ARKANSAS BURNED TO DEATH

BENTON, Ark., Sept. 16.—(P)—Seven persons burned to death today when flames destroyed their three-room frame dwelling formerly occupied by here in the Ouachita foothills.

They were John Whalen Wallace, 45, his 40-year-old wife, Lorene, and five of their six children. Wallace was a small farmer and sawmill laborer. Coroner J. P. Sims said ruins of a small liquor still were found in the room where the blaze apparently started.

The only member of the family group to escape was Roice, 11. Sims quoted him as saying he was awakened by an explosion, saw the front two rooms in a mass of flames, slammed the connecting door and dived out a back window.

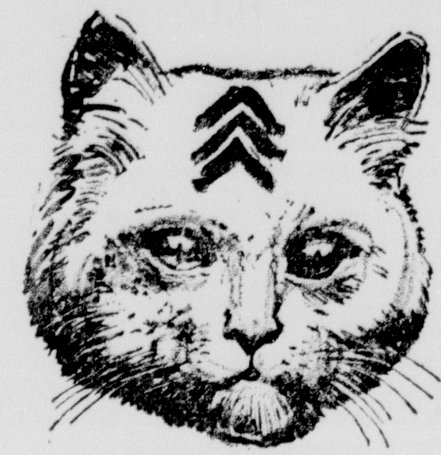

In addition to the parents, the dead were Corrine Wallace, 13, John D. Wallace, 10, Frankie, 4, Reuben, 3, and Daisy, two months.

"IN WASHINGTON"

By Bascom N. Timmons

When President Truman took office back in 1945, there followed a rash of stories about how hard it is for a man without means to live in the White House on a salary of $75,000 a year.

It was figured that President Truman had only $32,000 left after paying income taxes. Even with a residence and travel and entertainment money, that is not enough to keep him from going broke, it was said.

Now comes a renewed boost—this time from a labor union—to up the President's pay. It comes from the powerful A. F. of L. International Association of Machinists.

The union's weekly newspaper recently carried an editorial calling President Truman "the most underpaid individual in the country—at $75,000 a year."

It compares his salary with the figures received by various private citizens during the year 1946, as published by the Bureau of Internal Revenue. It said it "assumed" that the President and Commander-in-Chief of the Armed Forces "is about as useful to the nation as the proprietor of motion picture houses, a Los Angeles horse racing operator, the editor of the Readers' Digest, or even Betty Grable."

The paper then recalled that Congress last year raised Congressional salaries, but not the President's. As a matter of fact, the President hasn't received a pay-raise since 1909.

"We assume," the editorial concluded, "that living costs must be higher at the White House, too."

During the last session of Congress, two bills were introduced to increase salaries for the President as well as members of his cabinet and sub-cabinet. The matter was discussed at the time of debate on the Congressional Reorganization Act, but nothing came of it.

During the first session of the present congress, no bills were offered to increase Presidential pay. There was a bill to give all ex-presidents an annuity, but that would not pay current White House bills, of course. The chances are that something along the pay-raise line will be dropped into the hopper during the session ahead.

For, if the Trumans found it hard to get by on $32,000 net last year, what are they going to do to pay grocery bills these days?

General Carl "Tooley" Spaatz, present commanding general of the Army Air Forces and one of the air heroes of the recent world war, is not going to retire in the near future despite all the published reports to that effect in recent months.

When the independent United States Air Force is established during the next few years under the armed services reorganization and unification act of the last Congress, General Spaatz will become Chief of Staff for the independent unit and intends to keep this post indefinitely, close associates disclose. He wants to stay and guide the establishment, so long desired by the air force, of this third unit of the American armed forces.

There have been recurring reports for sometime that General Spaatz would retire when the unification act became operative and be succeeded by youthful Lieutenant General Hoyt S. Vandenberg, handsome and personable nephew of Senate President Arthur Vandenberg of Michigan. Decision of General Spaatz to keep his post will mean that General Vandenberg will continue indefinitely as Deputy Chief of Staff, second in command. General Spaatz does not reach statutory retirement age until 1954.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics takes no chances on the reports of food prices which are officially made by the grocers, for use in the BLS regular cost-of-living reports. As a result, it double checks.

First, it sends in an investigator who identifies himself to the grocer and asks about food prices. Then, it sends another investigator posing as a

Pitching Horseshoes

By Billy Rose

Unannounced, a young man burst into my office a few minutes ago. His hair was rumpled and there was a fleck of foam on his lips.

"You've got to help me," he yelled. "You've got to help me or I'll 'te you.' R O S E: Take it easy, young fellow. What's this all about?"

YOUNG MAN: I'm a songwriter. I have a portfolio full of great songs. How do I go about getting them published?"

ROSE: I don't know. Y. M.: Remember what I said about biting you? I wasn't kidding. Answer up, now.

ROSE: I'm not kidding when I say I don't know. I'm a songwriter too. I have what I think is a pretty good song in my desk. It's been there for six years. No one wants to publish it.

Y. M.: You mean with all your connections you can't get a song published?

ROSE: Oh, I suppose I could get some friendly music publisher to print up some copies. But printing a song doesn't make it a hit. Unless the publisher orders his plugging organization to concentrate on getting a song played and sung, no one gets to hear it.

Y. M.: Well, if the publisher is your friend, why doesn't he tell his men to plug your song?

ROSE: Because he doesn't own his firm. Somebody else gives the orders.

Y. M.: Who?

ROSE: A movie company. Soon after Hollywood started making musical pictures, it discovered that a hit song was excellent promotion for a film. Every time it was played it would bring a picture to mind. So the movie boys sent a few box cars of money to Tin Pan Alley and bought out most of the big firms—copyrights, office furniture, plugging staffs, and memo pads.

Y. M.: You mean if I submit a better song than the one in the movie, the publisher will exploit the bum song and let mine die?

ROSE: Exactly. If your ditty is a success it may make the firm fifty grand—a hundred at the outside. The movie company figures if it can put over the bum song, it will help out over a picture that might make three or four million.

Y. M.: All right, let them promote their movie songs. But why can't they plug my songs at the same time?

ROSE: It takes a lot of muscle to get a song on the Hit Parade. No organization can concentrate on more than one or two songs at a time.

Y. M.: Where does that leave me?

ROSE: In the same boat with a lot of top-notch writers who have quit writing because, without a Hollywood connection, they can't get their songs exploited. They live on their ASCAP money and royalties from their old songs.

Y. M.: (desperately) There must be some way to break through!

ROSE: In the old days, I might have told you to marry the publisher's daughter. Today you have to marry Dorel Zankov.

Y. M.: (hysterical now) You can't discourage me. I've got to see my stuff in print. What do you think of the outfits that advertise they will publish my song if I send them a hundred dollars?

ROSE: Most of them are out-and-out clip joints. They print a few copies of the song and pocket the rest of your money.

Y. M.: Doesn't this business of favoring a handful of Hollywood writers and freeing out thousands of others keep the public from hearing a lot of good music?

ROSE: You're darn right if it does. Maybe that's why so many of the old songs are becoming hits all over again. Nothing out of Hollywood in years compares with "Peg O' My Heart," "I Wonder Who's Kissing Her Now," or "When You Were Sweet Sixteen." The Jolson albums of old-time favorites are selling faster than they can be pressed. Of course, Al is good—but that's a fine set of horses he's riding.

Y. M.: Well, doesn't any new writer ever get a song published and see it become a hit?

ROSE: Once in a June moon. But I think statistics would prove it's easier to get elected to the United States Senate. Take my advice and go home, son, go home.

Y. M.: (transfixed) What a title! "Go Home, Son, Go Home." It's a natural! I'll paralyze them! Where's a piano? (BLACKOUT)

TWO AGED SISTERS FORBIDLY REMOVED

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 16.—(P)—Two aged and enfeebled sisters, forcibly removed by police from their junk-littered apartment in the residential Squirrel Hill section, were reported in serious condition from malnutrition today.

For 10 days the once-prosperous seamstresses, Frances Bittner, 89, and Molly Bittner, 91, had proudly shunned offers of kindly neighbors to feed and aid them.

Police who broke into the apartment last night found one entirely helpless, the other barely able to move. Neither weighed more than 65 pounds, officers, who immediately hospitalized them, said.

The sisters had lived in seclusion since the death of a third sister, Rose, three years ago. During that period their apartment gradually filled with an accumulation of newspapers, cans, junk, and odds and ends reminiscent of the Langley Collier case in New York, Palomar Joseph Chodok reported.

"They were too proud to ask for help," said the sisters' attorney. "I think their only income was their old age pensions."

HEADLIGHT CAUSES ARREST OF DRIVER ON DRUNK CHARGE

A defective headlight called state troopers' attention to a swaying automobile on DeSiard Street Road at 9 p.m. Monday and they halted the machine and arrested the driver.

At parish prison, where he was booked as Clayton A. Fulwider, 34, of Jackson, Miss., the prisoner was charged with operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of liquor. He is scheduled for arraignment in Thursday's city court session for state cases.

rain anyhow. This cloud must be unusual. It must be colder than freezing, but the small rain particles haven't yet turned to ice.

Now, toss out the dry ice.

Don't ask why, but this causes the moisture to freeze in fairly large pieces. Down goes the ice, melting as it falls.

Result: Rain, not man made, but man inspired.

Dr. Wexler says, scientifically speaking, there are still a lot of questions to be answered about the dry ice treatment.

For instance, if that cloud had been left alone, it might have rained without any prompting.

At any rate, don't look for a gully-washer of a rain.

If a cloud is two miles thick and is standing still, Dr. Wexler says, the moist moisture you can hope for is one-tenth of an inch.

Which brings up another problem. T'other day Chickasha, Okla., residents sent up a dry icer, the wind came up, and it rained gloriously in nearby Andarko.

So there you are.

Even when you do something about the weather, you still can't depend on it.

their brother, a Franciscan missionary who spent 12 years in the Orient.

Miss Haven applied last January for work at Saint Francis hospital on Molokai. She sold her Chicago home and sailed for Molokai August 21. Her arrival was reported in a letter received here by her brother, now associated with the Franciscan Fathers' Laymen's Retreat League.

Miss Haven will be the only non-cleric on the island other than the 60 leper patients. She will assist the 12 Franciscan nuns who operate the hospital.

Before she departed, Miss Haven said: "God has always given me wonderful health. Now I want to share it with somebody else. I'm not afraid."

HORSE SHOW TO BE COLORFUL

Outstanding Horses To Be Entered By Out-Of-Town Owners

Some of the outstanding entries in the first annual Twin City horse show sponsored by the Junior Charity League, which opens here Sunday at 2 p. m. and again at 8 p. m. for a week's engagement, will include outstanding horses of such prominent people as Mrs. A. V. Zimmerman and Mrs. J. W. Beasley, both of Alexandria. These horses will be ridden by Babe Hendy. Two outstanding gaited horses will be shown.

Dr. Porter R. Rodgers, of Searcy, Ark., will enter a three-year-old, "Merry Man's Souvenir," and also two-year-old stallions and geldings. Also in the class will be "Bomb Shell," owned by the Harris Stables of Nacogdoches, Tex.

A two-year-old walking horse, "Midway Star," owned by C. S. Day of Brookhaven, Miss., and "Jones Lizetta," owned by Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Whitlock, of Shreveport, will be entered.

The fine harness class promises to offer a most interesting spectacle with ladies driving four-wheeled buggies which are to feature: "Manhattan Sweetheart," owned by Avis L. Godbold of Brookhaven, Miss., and also "Heldatious Storm," owned by Miss Lucyle Casey of Dallas, Tex. Also "Gay Party," owned by Mrs. J. W. Beasley of Alexandria, and "Glory Bells," the property of Mrs. F. L. Harris, Nacogdoches, Tex.

JES' RAMBLIN'

W. returned to Monroe, his mother told him: "You had a caller while I was in the hospital. He was regretful that you were away."

Irving Zeidman, popular musician, who will continue his studies in New York, bid adieu to his many friends here Tuesday as he left on a night train for the east. His friends are hopeful that he will not forget Monroe and will return here whenever he can do so.

Here's a fish story provided by "E. R. D." who is none other than Ed Dawson, manager of the Western Union here. He stated: "Believe it or not. Caught a five-pound Opeleus catfish over the levee on a bream hook. It was landed safely and proved good eating." Ed is a good Gideon so will not question his statement.

Delta Air Lines reports purchase of a Hughes radar collision warning indicator for test purposes with the idea of installing the device ultimately as a safety measure on its entire fleet.

C. H. Dolson, operations manager, said the Hughes instrument had been selected tentatively by Delta as the best of its type for indicating terrain clearance. A yellow light which flashes shows mountains or other large obstructions at a distance of 2,000 feet, while a red light on the pilot instrument panel indicates the presence of obstructions at 500 feet.

Dolson said Howard Hughes' company had developed the indicator and offered it to all airlines, patterning it after tail warning radar sets which were used in the recent war to detect planes approaching from the rear.

anyone to know we had bought dynamite."

She admitted telling peace officers she didn't exactly remember her activities on March 14.

But today, Louise said she picked up Bud at Los Angeles City College March 14 and went with him to his parents' home where he told her that her father had called him and asked him to buy dynamite. She quoted Bud as saying Overall gave no reason for the proposed purchase.

They finally bought the explosive at the Chatsworth plant of the Trojan Powder Company, she said, and she paid for it with 18 silver dollars "which were part of Bud's birthday present."

On cross-examination, she said the last she saw of it was in its big wooden box, about a skiff which carried them to the yacht the next day. The dynamite purchase was brought out on direct examination by her counsel.

Jacobs asked her if she had seen the dynamite placed aboard the Mary E. She said she had not. She testified that she, personally, had brought nothing other than magazines aboard the yacht the day of her parents' death.

The state had tried to link her and Gollum with another dynamite purchase at Highland, Calif., but she said she had never been there and didn't even know where the town is.

Ben Smith, a San Bernardino county deputy sheriff, and agent for a powder company in Highland, had tentatively identified Louise and Gollum as the purchasers.

set a fashion style at the 1946 session with a bright red handkerchief draped from his breast pocket conspicuously as he jostled with the Russians. Shawcross said his handkerchief this year was yellow.

He told reporters that Minister of State Hector McNeil, the chief British delegate, and Vishinsky had held a party aboard the liner. Shawcross said the conversation there centered on the merits of penicillin and its relation to Greece. McNeil argued that Greece needed a "shot of help" but Vishinsky contended that no doctor was needed.

Dimitri Z. Manuilsky, foreign minister of the Soviet Ukraine and known in U. N. circles for his biting wit, would comment on only one issue—Palestine. Of the Holy Land dispute between the Jews and the Arabs, he chuckled:

"I am for the Christian population."

There were approximately 200 guards on hand, including 120 city policemen, 60 U. N. security guards and private delegation guards. All remained quiet.

$100,000 worth of liquor was on the shelves.

It was only 63 degrees Fahrenheit in the air-conditioned chamber when the meeting opened, but Security Chief Frank Begley remarked:

"It will get hot enough when they begin speaking."

PARISH GRADUATES OF TECH WILL MEET

Officers for the ensuing year will be elected by the Ouachita parish unit of the Louisiana Tech Alumni Association at the first fall meeting of the group, to be held at 8 p. m. Thursday, September 23, at Hotel Frances, according to Fort Zackary, president.

All Louisiana Tech graduates and former students now residing in Ouachita parish are invited to attend the meeting.

Zackary said. In addition to the annual election of officers, he said several other matters of interest to Tech graduates in the Monroe area will be discussed.

DRIVER ARRESTED AFTER SIDESWIPING

Billy Cooper, 19, of Ruston, was arrested by state police and charged with reckless driving after his car had sideswiped an auto operated by Bobby Brooks, 21, of West Monroe, on U. S. 80, two miles west of West Monroe at 10:15 p.m. Monday.

Troopers reported each machine as damaged between $25 and $50.

KING CAROL, BRIDE

PLAN EUROPEAN TRIP

RIO de JANEIRO, Sept. 16.—(AP)—Former King Carol of Romania plans to return to Europe Saturday with his bride, Madame Elena Lupescu, a close friend said today.

They have arranged to sail aboard the Argentine ship Juan C. Garay for Lisbon with the intention of living in Portugal, said the friend who asked not to be quoted by name.

The two Moslem segments united governmentally as the new nation of Pakistan lie at opposite northeast and northwest corners of India.

New York

NEW YORK, Sept. 16. —(AP)—Cotton futures were firm and active today. Short covering and new commission house buying was supplemented by increased trade demand. Prices at times rallied to gains of as much as $1.50 a bale at which level profit taking was attracted. An easier undertone in the grain market accounted for some of the selling. Dealers expressed the belief that today's trade demand was the heaviest in the past several weeks. Late afternoon prices were 35 to 80 cents a bale higher than the previous close. Oct. 32.47, Dec. 32.24, March 32.30.

Futures closed $1.85 to $2.65 a bale higher than the previous close.

NEW YORK STOCKS

NEW YORK, Sept. 16. —(AP)—The stock market edged cautiously into higher ground today although price changes of as much as a point were rare.

Industrial favorites, joined by a few rails, negotiated narrow advances. The pace of dealings lifted slightly above Monday's crawl but showed no runaway tendency. Scattered gains outnumbered losses near the fourth hour.

Bon's eased. Commodities were mixed.

Giants Threaten To Pass Faltering Cardinals; Brooks Boost Loop Lead

Ottmen Dump Red Birds, 7 To 2, While Dodgers Beat Reds, 7 To 3

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 16.—(AP)—With all thoughts of overtaking the pennant bound Brooklyn Dodgers practically gone now, the fast fading St. Louis Cardinals were faced with the prospect of losing second place Tuesday as the New York Giants handed them their third straight licking 7-2.

Rookie Ray Poat went all the way for the New Yorkers, limiting the defending champions to seven hits for his fourth victory against one defeat. Harry Brecheen was the loser, dropping his 11th game against 15 wins.

The Giants finished Brecheen off in the eighth with a four run outburst which included five singles and Cooper's 33rd home run.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 16.—(AP)—The pennant-bound Brooklyn Dodgers moved 8 1/2 games ahead of the St. Louis Cardinals Tuesday by taking the third and final game of the series from the Cincinnati Reds 7-3. With 10 games left to play, the Dodgers can clinch the National League flag by winning four of them. Four Cardinals defeats also would do the trick.

Ralph Branca scattered 12 hits effectively to register his 21st triumph, tying him with Cincinnati's Ewell Blackwell for the most wins in the majors. The Dodgers made only six hits off Bucky Walters and Kent Peterson, but came through in the clutch to chase in the runs.

DODGERS NEED 4 WINS

CINCINNATI, Sept. 16.—(AP)—The pennant-bound Brooklyn Dodgers moved 8 1/2 games ahead of the St. Louis Cardinals Tuesday by taking the third and final game of the series from the Cincinnati Reds 7-3. With 10 games left to play, the Dodgers can clinch the National League flag by winning four of them. Four Cardinals defeats also would do the trick.

Ralph Branca scattered 12 hits effectively to register his 21st triumph, tying him with Cincinnati's Ewell Blackwell for the most wins in the majors. The Dodgers made only six hits off Bucky Walters and Kent Peterson, but came through in the clutch to chase in the runs.

CIVILIAN FROTH MORE NUMEROUS

Surpass Last Year's Figures
For Northeast Junior College

Civilian freshmen registering for the fall term at Northeast Junior College are surpassing last year's gross enrollment figures, according to figures available today. This marks the second day for freshmen enrollment at the beginning of registration for the fall term. The college's sophomore group being larger than it has been in previous years.

Wednesday will mark the last day of enrollment for freshmen at the college and Thursday will be the last day for the registration of sophomores. Work will start on regular class schedule at an eight-class period calendar.

High school graduates and students transferring from other colleges or universities for study at N. J. C. are expected to bring their transcripts of college credits they have previously earned them to the registrar's office. All veterans who plan to enter the college should bring their certificates of eligibility at the time they register.

Effective this fall is the change that has been made in the music department regarding fees. Harry Lemert, head of the department, announces that to all regular enrolled students no special charge will be made to private instruction in voice, piano, organ, guitar, brass and reed instruments.

Qualified students registering for band may apply to the bandmaster for scholarship in that field of work. Band scholarships exempt the holders from the regular registration fee of $1.50.

Charles H. Burke, formerly of the faculty of Adams State College, Colorado, has joined the music department staff as instructor in violin and brass instruments. He also will direct the Northeast Junior College band.

WALTER SAVAGE, JR., POST PLANS EVENT

A form of entertainment usually associated with state fairs and bigger events of a similar nature, will be presented here October 7, under the auspices of the Walter S. Savage, Jr., post of American Veterans of World War II.

The post has made arrangements for a fireworks display on that date at the Neville High School stadium. The display, depicting historic personages, past and present, and painting in pyrotechnics the American flag, the Statue of Liberty and Niagara Falls, will be shown at 7:30 p.m.

Receipts derived will be used for the building fund of the post.

Privately owned timber comprises about 30 percent of the commercial forests of the United States.

BAR ASSN. TO HOLD MEMORIAL SERVICES

Memorial services for two members who died during the last ten-month term of the Fourth district court—George Wesley Smith and Harry H. Russell—will be held by the Ouachita-Morehouse Bar Association in the courtroom here at 2 o'clock next Monday afternoon.

Named by President James D. Sparks as a committee to draft a resolution for Mr. Smith were M. C. Redmond, H. F. Madison, Jr., and George Fink, and J. B. Thornhill, F. G. Hudson, Jr., George Gunby and Harry Oliver, Jr., for Mr. Russell. The resolutions are to be presented and the eulogies made by Mr. Redmond and Mr. Thornhill, chairman of the respective committees.

Mr. Sparks announced that law books, purchased with a $5,000 fund provided by the Ouachita parish police jury to modernize the court law library, have begun to arrive and are being placed in the library room on the third floor of the courthouse. Other officers of the bar association are Gilbert Brown, secretary; J. B. Thornhill, vice-president for Ouachita, and James Madison, vice president for Morehouse.

TEMPERATURES IN MANY AREAS DROP

(By Associated Press)
Temperatures dipped into the 30's and 40's over a wide area of the country today, and fell below normal in many sections for the first time in several weeks.

The mass of cool air extended from the Dakotas to the Appalachians and touched parts of the South in Louisiana, Tennessee, and Georgia. The coolest areas were in northern Minnesota, upper Michigan and along the North Dakota border. Pembina, N. D., reported near freezing temperatures this morning.

Rain was reported in the Appalachian region, the Atlantic states and in the northern Rocky mountains. Showers were predicted for parts of the north central region.

Temperatures climbed to above 100 yesterday in California's Central valley and were near that mark in some sections of the gulf states.

COUPLE ARRESTED ON MORALS CHARGE

Kitty Wells, 23, of Route 1, Bastrop, and J. B. Grayson, 21, of 115 Adams street, were arrested at the Tourist Hotel Tuesday at 1:33 a. m. and charged at police headquarters with violation of the anti-vice laws.

Both are being held in city jail under $100 bond pending hearing of the case in city court.

In Roman times giant wooden torches were used for outdoor lighting.

FUNERAL HELD FOR W. GLEASON

Father Of Monroe Woman
Was Prominent Minden
Banker

MINDEN, La., Sept. 16.—(Special)—The funeral of William T. Gleason, 73, planter and banker of Minden and father of Mrs. Gladys Gleason McGimsey, of Monroe, was held at the First Methodist Church in Minden Tuesday at 3 p.m. Officiating clergyman was Rev. G. W. Pomeroy and Rev. N. E. Joyner.

Gleason, a lifelong resident of Webster parish, died at his home in Minden at 8 p.m. Sunday of a cerebral hemorrhage. He had been in ill health for several months, but recently seemed to have recovered and had returned to his business activities.

Gleason was born near Evergreen on February 13, 1873. During his early life he was in the lumber business and for many years was associated with the Porter-Wadley Lumber Company of Texarkana, Ark. He was actively engaged in large scale farming until he moved to Minden 25 years ago, when he changed his duties on his farms to a supervisory status.

Gleason was chairman of the board of directors of the Peoples Bank and Trust Company in Minden at the time of his death. He was one of the largest land owners in Webster parish. He was a member of the First Methodist Church of Minden, the Knights of Pythias, the Odd Fellows and other organizations in the parish.

AWAITS RELEASE IN DUMP SLAYING

Eddie Griffin, 29, Negro, of 814 Short Washington street, Tuesday noon was still in the parish jail awaiting the district attorney's authorization for his release, expected since Monday afternoon when a coroner's jury turned as justifiable homicide his killing of Tommy Jackson, 30-year-old Rayville Negro at the city dump early last Saturday.

Jackson, according to Coroner Dr. J. T. French and several witnesses, was killed instantly by a rock thrown by Griffin whom he was chasing with an open knife.

The jury was composed of P. T. Scalia, Ted Flaherty, Lon Ingram, J. E. McMullin and J. L. Tolbert.

MISHAP WITH CITY BUS IS REPORTED

Mrs. George Bubb, 30, 203 Shippolyte street, filed an accident report at police headquarters early Tuesday morning regarding an accident involving a city bus at 800 Jackson.

Mrs. Bubb stated that she was following a slow moving car going north on Jackson. Both cars stopped for an intersection when the bus struck her car in the rear, causing damage to rear fenders.

Let's STOP for Premium Quality Falstaff!

WHEN THE MRS. turns your day off into a rug-beating marathon... STOP and refresh yourself with cool, delicious Falstaff. (Any woman who's such a good housekeeper is sure to keep Premium Quality Falstaff handy in the refrigerator!)

Old-Timer's Favorite!
Falstaff keeps friends because its flavor never lets them down. It's brewed the same time-tested way... true to the same Premium Quality tradition... year after year.

CAN'T BEAT THIS! In fact, no beer can even come close to that famous Falstaff flavor. For only Falstaff is made with thoroughbred yeast so fine it's insured for $1,000,000.00. As experts agree, it's east that's so vital to beer flavor. Better flavor—that must be why so many folks STOP for Premium Quality Falstaff.
